

Kahana Family Art Activity

“Palani, The Surfing Chief of Kahana”

Instructions:

1. Gather on the Punalu‘u side of Ke Kahakai ‘o Kalehualoa.
2. Begin learning session with the oli “E Ho Mai”
3. Review and retell the story of Palani, the surfing chief of Kahana and his interaction with Hi‘iakaikapoliopele.
4. Choose the medium you plan to work with i.e; pencil, pen, crayon, paint. Prepare materials and work surfaces.
5. Take a time to observe the land formation of Palani.
6. Allow haumāna to depict the story or the land formation in their own creative visual art method.
7. After a period of time, gather together and share nā mea no‘eau and mana‘o.

Mahalo, a hui hou!